Important Matters

Your Insurer

Car Hire Excess is a trading name of The Insurance Geeks Pty Ltd ABN 35 612 507 785.

Your policy is underwritten by certain underwriters at Lloyd's (the insurer).

The insurer has appointed Insurance Geeks to issue, vary, renew or cancel the policy and to handle and settle claims on the insurer's behalf. Car Hire Excess is authorised by ASIC to provide general financial product advice on and deal in general insurance products.

Your Car Hire Excess Policy

If you buy the policy, this document and your certificate of insurance make up your insurance contract with us. Be sure to keep them in a safe place.

Preparation Date

The preparation date of this PDS is 1st of September 2016.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into this insurance with us, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

The Act imposes a different duty the first time you enter a contract of insurance with us to that which applies when you vary, extend or reinstate the contract.

If we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision whether to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

If You Do Not Tell Us Something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to tell us, we may cancel your insurance contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay claim and treat the insurance contract as if it never existed.

General Conditions

Other Insurance

If any loss, damage or liability covered under this policy is covered by other insurance, you must give us details. If you are paid the full amount of your claim under one policy, you cannot make a claim under another policy.

If you are not paid the full amount of your claim under another policy, we will make up the difference provided your claim is covered by the policy. We may seek contribution from other insurer. If we do, you must give us any information or assistance we reasonably need to do so.

Subrogation

If you are aware of any third party that is or may be liable for your loss or damage, you must tell us about them.

We are entitled to and may (at our discretion) seek to recover compensation for any party in respect of anything covered by this policy, including bringing legal proceedings. We are entitled to control and settle any such recovery action.

You must provide any assistance and permit all acts and things that we reasonably require to enable us to pursue any such recovery actions even if we have not yet paid your claim or the amount we pay does not fully compensate you for your loss or damage.

Recovery

Any money we recover from a third party under our right of subrogation will be applied in the following order:

1. To us, our costs (administration and legal) arising from the recovery;
2. To us, an amount equal to the amount we pay you under your policy;
3. To you, your uninsured loss.

Once we have paid your total loss, we will keep any money left over.

If we have paid the full amount of your loss and you later receive a payment from someone else for that loss, you must pay that money to us (but only up to the amount we paid you).

If we pay for lost or damaged property which is later recovered or replaced by a third party, you must repay us the amount we paid for that property.

Business Trip – GST

If you are entitled to claim an input tax credit in respect of a cost for which a claim is made, or would be entitled to an input tax credit if you were to incur the relevant cost (i.e. in replacing a lost or stolen item), the amount we would otherwise pay will be reduced by the amount of that input tax credit.

Jurisdiction and Choice of Law

This policy is governed by laws of New South Wales, Australia. If you purchase the policy, you agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of that State.

The insurer agrees that:

- In the event of a dispute arising under this policy it will at your request, submit to the jurisdiction of any competent Court in the Commonwealth of Australia. Such dispute shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice applicable in such Court;
- Any summons notice or process to be served on the insurer may be served on Lloyd's General Representative in Australia, Suite 2, Level 21, Angel Place, 123 Pitt Street, SYDNEY NSW 2000 who has authority to accept service and to enter an appearance on the insurer's behalf, and who is directed at your request to give a written undertaking that he will enter an appearance on the insurer's behalf;
- If a suit is instituted against any one of the participating underwriters, all underwriters participating in this insurance will abide by the final decision of such Court or any competent Appellate Court.

Making A Claim

This part of PDS explains what you need to do if you need to make a claim or want to make a complaint.

Step 1 - Submit Your Claim

If you need to make a claim on the policy, it is important that you let us know as soon as possible and within 30 days of your return home. Here how:

- Call us on 1300 383 550
- Email us at info@travelclaimscentre.com.au

When submitting your claim, make sure you provide us with full information. We will require your rental agreement and receipt showing the excess amount paid.

If you delay submitting your claim, or provide us with insufficient information and we are disadvantaged as a result, we may need to reduce the amount we pay in settlement of your claim.

Step 2 - Claim Assessment

We will assess your claim within 10 business days of receiving it, provided we have all necessary information and documentation. If we need additional information, we'll let you know and provide an estimate of the expected turnaround and process for making a decision.

Once our assessment is complete, we'll decide whether to accept or deny your claim. If it is denied, we'll let you know in writing and give you our reasons.

Step 3 – Excess Reimbursement

If your claim is accepted, we'll pay the amount due to you in Australian dollars. We'll pay this to you unless you ask us to pay someone else.

Importantly:

If you make a claim against someone else in relation to a loss covered by the policy and do not get paid the full amount of your claim, we'll make up the difference provided:
